

Prof. Dr. Ayseli Usluata,
Faculty of Communication
Yeditepe University, Istanbul, Turkey.

Ayseli Usluata received Diploma from American Academy for Girls, Uskudar, Istanbul; BA from Istanbul University; MA from University of Kansas, Lawrence; and PhD degree from Bogazici University, Istanbul.

She is currently full professor and Head of Public Relations and Publicity Department at Yeditepe University teaching Mass Communication, Communication Theories, Social Responsibility, Global Communication. Her class is Part of the Global classroom project executed by Nebraska-Lincoln University. She is currently on the advisory board of European Communication Research and Communication Association (ECREA); on the Editorial Review Board of Global Advances in Business Communication (GABC) Journal; on the Advisory Board of Global Media Journal: American Edition; on the Advisory Board of Global Media Journal: Turkish Edition; was a member of the Executive Council of ECA (European Communication Association) between 2003-2005; a member of IAMCR (International Association of Mass Communication Research) between 1987-1999; was a member of SIETAR (Society for Intercultural Education Training and Research) between 1998 and 2002. She has been a member of ABC (Association of Business Communication) since 1995 and a member of the International Issues Committee. She holds the “Abdi İpekci peace prize” (1991) for her article written to promote peace between Greece and Turkey and was the project coordinator of Turkey for the Global Project of Women in Media for the years 1995 and 2000. She is the invited member of “Oxford Round Table 2013.”

She is the author of a book on communication in Turkish (İletişim 1994;1995); co-author (with M. Martin), of Political Cartoons of Female Power: A comparative Study of Canada and Turkey (2009) editor of Communication: Spanning Cultures, Change and Challenges, and author of “From conflict to harmony: a heterogeneous group in a business communication class in Turkey (2008).”; co-editor (with J. Rosenbaum) of “Shaping the Future of Communication Research in Europe (2005). An article in: Business Communication Quarterly.” ISBN: B00097MLKQ. She contributed chapters to Images of the U.S. Around the World (1998); Communication Research and Media Science in Europe (2003); Multiculturalism: Identity and Otherness (1997); Bilim Politikası ve Üniversiteler (Politics of Science and Universities) (1997) and Ana Dilde Çocuk Olmak (Being a Child in Mother Tongue) (1998). As co-translator with E. Wolfe their translations of the stories and poems of Sait Faik were published in Smoky Hill Review ve Prairie Schooner. She has about 60 articles published in journals and newspapers both in English and Turkish; translated about 15 books and stories; and presented about 50 papers at international conferences.